

FRIDAY NOVEMBER II. 1743.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from France.

Extrait from the Paris Alaman.

Paris, November 15.

His E. King declared on the 12th, in the Evening, the Marriage of the Duke de Chartres with Mademoiselle de Conty; and that of Mademoiselle de Modena with the Duke de Ponthievre. The Duke of Orleans went that Afternoon to Fontainebleau, on Account of the Marriage of his Son, the Duke de Chartres; and the Prince of Conty, who was at the Isle of Adam, went thither on the same Score.

The Marriage of the Prince of Turenne with Mademoiselle de Marfan, is to be celebrated on Tuesday next by the Cardinal d'Auvergne, in the Chapel of the Palace of the Prince de Pons.

Besides the usual Allowance to Ambassadors, his Majesty has been pleased to grant to M. de la Chetardie a Pension of 35,000 Livres per Ann. That Minister has written to Madame de Monasteroles, his Mother, that he had like to have been assassinated on the Road; and that having the King's Commission to accept (when the Term of his Ambassy is expired) a Post of high Rank under the Czarina, he does not think of returning again into France.

M. the Count de Saxe, and M. de Castres, returned last Monday from the Army; and the Count de Tonnerre, and M. de Buffi Bourbon, are since come.

We are assured, that by Spring we shall have 30,000 Swifs in our Pay.

It is also confidently reported, that an Alliance is concluded between France, Sweden, Prussia and Russia.

Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Lorraine is (as we hear) very ill at Comercy.

The Troops in the Neighbourhood of Sedan have begun to fortify themselves, because the Army of the Allies are arrived in the Duchy of Luxemburg.

It is strongly affirmed, that a Marriage is negotiating between the King of Sardinia and the Princess Carlotta of Lorraine; and we are assured, that his Sardinian Majesty is soliciting a Dispensation at Rome, on Account of that Princess being his late Queen's Sister.

M. de Herouville appeared at Court on the 12th, on his Return from Pilsen, and was very well receiv'd by his Majesty.

Actions 2170.

AMERICA.

Boston, September 13. On Friday last Capt. Waldo, in a Brigantine, came in here to refit; who sailed from this Port the 4th of August last, and on the 14th met with a severe Storm, in which he lost all his Masts, his Sheep, and two fine Horses, off the Deck, and one Man. Captain Waldo saw another Brigantine in Distress, but knows not who she was.

The same Day also came to refit, a Snow that was bound from Amboy to Madeira, with Provisions; but met with such bad Weather, that she lost her Main-mast, and Fore-top-gallant Mast, &c. and two of her Men.

Virginia, September 8. On Saturday last, at the Court of Vice-Admiralty held at York, by Adjournment from hence, for Trial of the Spanish Prize taken by Lord Banfill in the Hastings Man of War, the said Vessel, with her Masts, Apparel, &c. was condemn'd as lawful Prize. As to the Negroes, &c. we are not inform'd whether they are deem'd Slaves or not. The Vessel was sold to Capt. Thompson for 210 Pound; the Tann'd Leather sold for 4 d. to 5 d. per Pound; the Indigo from 3 s. to 4 s. per Pound, but chiefly at 3 s. 2 d. the Cochineal 25 s. per Pound, and the Jallap at 12 d. or 13 d. per Pound. The Sale was finish'd this Day, and 'tis said, will amount to 7000 l. which, added to the 35,000 l. she makes her a valuable Prize.

Philadelphia, September 8. We are assured that the understanding between the Colony of Virginia and the Six Nations, occasion'd by the Skirmish last Winter on the Frontiers, is now happily accommodated by the mediation of our Governor; several Belts and Strings of Wampum being interchanged on July 31, at Onondaga, between Conrad Weiser, Esq; in Behalf of Virginia, and the Great Council of those Nations; when all past Differences were (as the Indians expressed it) sunk in the ocean, never more to be seen or thought of. Deputies from the Thirokees were, at the same time, arrived in the Seneca's Country, their Business being to negotiate a Peace with the Six Nations; which, it is thought, would meet with little Difficulty, as the Great Men seemed well inclined towards it.

To the AUTHOR.

SIR,

LOTTERIES having (within this few Years) been more frequent than formerly, has led me, who have little else to do than amuse myself with being a Spectator of the Actions of the rest of Mankind, to make several Observations concerning them. But I have remark'd nothing with more Admiration, than the surprising Credulity which has appear'd in purchasing Shares of Tickets, almost of any Body, without Enquiry; which as the Ticket is left in the Hands of the Seller, and the Buyer has only a Note of Hand from him for Security, is trusting, as a Banker, with perhaps 10 or 20,000 Pounds, those who are entirely unknown; or, being known, no Body would credit with Five Shillings. As those who have chiefly imposed on the Publick, are either Dead, or Abroad, this cannot be look'd upon as a Reflection on any One now in Being; but I should think common Sense (on mature Consideration) should dictate to every One, to enquire of what Character and Substance they are with whom they deal, in indulging the Humour of being in Fortune's Way, that they may not be disappointed. If I err in my Sentiments, I hope the good Intention will be excus'd in PUBLICUS.

It at once strikes at, and absolutely eradicates the first Principle or Cause of Consumptions, whether of the Lungs or of any other Kind, as also of Asthma's, or Shortness of Breath, reduces the vicious Ferment of the Blood and Juices, cures the acrid Salts which erode the Lungs, frees them from all obstructing Viscosities, and does more real Good in one Day than any other Medicine whatever can in ten.

It assuredly retrieves the Patient, tho' reduced to a mere Skeleton; and immediately cures the most tedious hacking and almost suffocating Coughs, Hoarseness, Wheezing, Shortness of Breath, Difficulty of Breathing, Pain, or Weight in the Breast, Spitting of Blood, Soreness of the Stomach, Throat, or Windpipe: Also Catarrhs, or Disfluxions of Sharp Rheum, and all Putrid and Asthmatic Effects, Hectic Fevers, melting Night Sweats, and Diarrhoeas, or Loosenesses, in a pleasant and most agreeable Manner.

It is balsamick, healing and strengthening beyond Comparison, restores in all inward Weakness, Weakness, and Decay of Constitution whatever, perfectly cures Ulcers in the Lungs or in any other internal Part, causes free and easy Respiration or long Breathing, and speedily and infallibly cures ASTHMA's, and all Sorts of CONSUMPTIONS, in the very ever so bad, without the least Disorder, Trouble or Confinement, and is indeed the only true Remedy that can be dependently upon for the entire Cure of those Maladies.

Nor can the whole Materia Medica afford a quicker or more certain Cure for common Coughs and Colds, but the great Character of this most noble Chymical ELIXIR has so fully gain'd, for the direct and infallible Cure of Consumptions and Asthma's, &c. has occasioned many Attempts to counterfeit it; be careful therefore to have the Right, which will be had only at MR.
